Case In Point 9th Edition

Case In Point 9th Edition
To the author's credit, the 9th edition of the book does not include a bar graph anymore, present in the 7th edition, depicting information that called for the use of a histogram. The author also lets it on as if there are clear-cut ways how to label a case. So, for example, he says that the "case-like number" case in p. 26, concerning American Express, is just that: a "case-like number case." End of story. Dummies are those who don't see it. Even though, as the author in no uncertain terms ...
