Beauty And The Mustache Knitting

Knitting with the Winston Brothers I HAD to re-read/listen to Beauty and the Mustache after recently reading Beard with Me. I needed to see those Winston Brothers but I also needed to laugh at them and with them. Coincidentally, a very good friend lost a loved one right at the same time I was listening to Ash dealing with her family tragedy. I think it hit me a lot harder listening this time and those tears on the train were even harder to hold back.

Knitting in the City has fast become one of my favorite romantic comedy series, and Beauty and the Mustache is now one of my favorite books within the series. I started listening to the audio book version when I needed a pick me up, and it delivered in a big way. Joy Nash's narration is perfection—southern accent and all.
