Brown River White Ocean Anthology

The writers and poets are all so intelligent and creative, so much so that you'll want to find more of their work, that is after you've devoured this anthology! Every Filipino-American can find truth in the clashing of the (two, maybe more!) cultures, and in "Brown River, White Ocean," the struggles with identity are cleverly addressed and written. This is not only a book for Filipino-Americans, but for everybody. Come learn!

The speaker in Edgar Lee Masters' "Sarah Brown" from the American classic, Spoon River Anthology, is one of the most positive characters of the lot; although it is hinted that she committed adultery, she emphasizes "love" over sex. It was Sarah's husband who called her love for Maurice "guilty love," but since her marriage apparently remained intact, it is not clear that she actually ...
