But for all those that grow and mature through sports, there are those that take the game a little too seriously. To those few the difference between winning and losing isn't an option. So instead of trying harder and training longer they cheat. And when a cheater gets going and succeeds in pulling on over on the competition, chances are good he'll do it again. And again. And again. But ...

Cheating can also be as simple as sticking out a foot to trip an opposing player. It's also considered a cheat to steal signs or plays from an opponent. Equipment cheats are watched for in some sports like auto racing, while illegal moves, whether they are meant to be cheats or not, can get a player thrown out of some sporting events.
