Amazon.fr - A Comprehensive History of Assam by S. L. ...

Especially compelling is, despite being very backward developmentally even today, Assam (or at least parts of modern day Assam) was able to maintain its independence during the Mogul reign, fought off Burmese incursions, and only lost its independence when Britain consolidated its power over India in the mid-1800's. The book also does an excellent job of discussing the impact of the post-World War II partition on Assam and the origins of modern day ethnic and political conflict ...

I purchased the book after finding an excerpt of the first chapter online for free. It was then that I knew that I had to have it. Seeing as how Gait is like a gospel for novices entering the realm of Assam history, this book is a fresh change that tries to battle the colonial perspective on Assam in its own way.
